HRSA Tidbits

❖ HRSA Announces $15 Million in New Investments to Address Maternal Health Needs and Disparities in Rural Communities

Today, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' (HHS) Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) announced a combined investment of $15 million over four years through the Rural Maternity and Obstetrics Management Strategies (Rural MOMS) Program to improve maternal health in rural communities and a new program focused on strengthening maternal care and reducing disparities in the Delta region (within Alabama, Arkansas, Illinois, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, and Tennessee). HRSA Deputy Administrator Jordan Grossman highlighted these strategic investments today in Flagstaff, AZ, during the third state convening of HRSA's Enhancing Maternal Health Initiative.

Training & Opportunities

Anti-Racism Practitioner's Guide Webinar

Join us for the unveiling of the Anti-Racism Practitioner's Guide webinar, designed to address the pressing need for systemic change in behavioral healthcare settings in Oregon. This comprehensive guide offers actionable steps to combat racism and support practitioners of Color and Culture, featuring sample policies, procedures, and action items. Based on extensive research and collaboration with Andrea Redeau, LPC Clinical Supervisor, and Steffannie Roaché MS LPC, the guide sheds light on the pervasive nature of racism in professional environments. Discover key findings and engage in discussions on implementing helpful recommendations for creating an inclusive workplace.

Attendees are expected to attend all three sessions.
