- ❖ HRSA Announces More Than $68 Million to Improve Access to HIV Care for Women, Infants, Children and Youth during Maryland Maternal Health Convening
On Wednesday, July 31, Administrator Carole Johnson visited Morgan State University in Baltimore, Maryland for the latest Enhancing Maternal Health Initiative convening, where she announced more than $68 million in Ryan White HIV/AIDS Program funding to provide family-centered medical care and essential support services for women with low incomes, infants, children, and youth with HIV.
- ❖ Office of the Vice President Convenes Maternal Mental Health Hotline Counselors at the White House
The Office of Vice President Kamala Harris and HRSA Administrator Carole Johnson convened counselors from the National Maternal Mental Health Hotline \(1-833-TLC-MAMA\) at the White House to hear directly from 10 of the Hotline counselors about the ways they provide real-time support, encouragement, information, and referrals to those in need. The Hotline is a toll-free, confidential hotline that is available 24/7 to respond to the mental health needs of pregnant women, new moms, their families, and the communities that support them. Since being launched on Mother's Day two years ago, the Hotline has answered more than 40,000 calls and texts. The Hotline offers bilingual counselors in English and Spanish, as well as interpreters who support over 60 additional languages.

Training & Opportunities

NACHC is offering to help prepare assistance with HRSA site visits! This three-part webinar series features faculty from NACHC and three independent OSV reviewers with years of experience conducting HRSA OSVs. Each faculty member – a current fiscal, governance, and clinical reviewer – will provide practical tips and promising practices for ensuring a successful OSV and for achieving and maintaining a state of continuous compliance.
